Student's Name_____
Student ID #_____
Advisor_____

Degree Requirements in Political Science

To fulfill degree requirements for a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, all students must complete the following:

One course in Social Science methodology (select one)

___ Sociology 300 Social Science Research
___ Statistics 1020 Social Statistics (also fulfills Quantitative Reasoning Competency Area)
___ Statistics 1040 Statistics for Business & Economics

POLITICAL SCIENCE (30 credits minimum)

Four (4) introductory courses in the basic subfields of Political Science (select at least four)

___ PS 206 American Political Process
___ PS 210 National Policymaking
___ PS 302 Comparative Politics
___ PS 310 Comparative Developing Systems
___ PS 501 World Politics
___ PS 601 Political Ideologies

Five (5) elective courses in Political Science, at least three of which must be numbered 1000 or above

____ Political Science elective _____
____ Political Science elective _____
____ Political Science elective _____
____ Political Science elective _____
____ Political Science elective _____

___ PS 1700 Political Science Research (required senior year capstone course)

CAUTION: This is an informal advising check sheet. Students are personally responsible for fulfillment of all graduation requirements. When a student has completed 75 credits, he/she must formally apply for graduation with the Office of the Registrar, which will then conduct and complete an official graduation audit and notify the student of requirements that are not yet completed.

FACULTY IN POLITICAL SCIENCE

Dr. James Alexander
Prelaw Advisor/Dept Head
Krebs 104C
269-2990
zander@pitt.edu

Dr. Raymond Wrabley
Krebs 101
269-2979
rbw@pitt.edu

Dr. Christopher Cook
Krebs 104D
269-2977
ccook@pitt.edu