Spanish Curriculum

The Spanish minor at Pitt-Johnstown consists of a minimum of 18 credits of study covering intermediate Spanish language, Hispanic and/or Latin American literature, and Spanish and/or Latin American culture. Students are urged to explore a full range of options for study abroad and should begin to consider study abroad during their freshman year.

A Minor in Spanish requires 18 credit hours all in the same language beginning with Intermediate courses (SPAN 0211 or SPAN 0212). Classes must be in Spanish not in English translation. A typical plan of study is as follows:*

SPAN 0211 (Intermediate I) ................................................................. 3 credits
SPAN 0212 (Intermediate II) ............................................................ 3 credits

At least 4 upper-division courses such as:

SPAN 0320 (Conversation) ................................................................. 3 credits
SPAN 0325 (Grammar and Composition) ........................................... 3 credits
SPAN 0351 (Latin American Civilization) .......................................... 3 credits
SPAN 0355 (Introduction to Hispanic Literature I) ......................... 3 credits
SPAN 0356 (Introduction to Hispanic Literature II) ......................... 3 credits
SPAN 1193 (Literary Translation) ..................................................... 3 credits
SPAN 1444 (Latin American Topics) ............................................... 3 credits

- Argentina
- Contemporary Argentine Cinema
- Colombia
- Contemporary Colombian Cinema
- Mexico

SPAN 1445 (Seminar: Latin American Literature and Culture) ............ 3 credits

*Study abroad credits may count toward the major and minor.

Foreign Language Placement Exams

Scores vs. Placement

Students taking a foreign language must take a placement exam.

Based on the results of the placement exam, you may be placed in upper-division courses.

In that case, you would need to take only upper-division courses to fulfill the 18 credit hours.
