A student may cancel his or her housing for the following reasons. Different terms, as outlined below, apply to each type of housing cancellation.

1. Transferring – A student may cancel their housing to transfer to another institution. If the student is leaving during a term, the housing charges for that term will be prorated based on the number of nights the student resided on campus, which is counted until the student removes all their belongings and returns the room key. Any future housing will be cancelled and the student will not be responsible for any future housing charges. If the cancellation is received by December 31, 2016, the housing deposit will be refunded.

2. Relocating to another University of Pittsburgh campus - A student may cancel their housing to relocate to another campus in the University of Pittsburgh system. If the student is leaving during a term, the housing charges for that term will be prorated based on the number of nights the student resided on campus, which is counted until the student removes all their belongings and returns the room key. Any future housing will be cancelled and the student will not be responsible for any future housing charges. If the cancellation is received by December 31, 2016, the housing deposit will be refunded.

3. Graduating – A student may cancel a future term’s housing due to graduation. Any future housing will be cancelled and the student will not be responsible for any future housing charges. If the cancellation is received by December 31, 2016, the housing deposit will be refunded.

4. Withdrawal from the University – A student may cancel their housing if they are withdrawing from the University. If the student is leaving during a term, the housing charges for that term will be prorated based on the number of nights the student resided on campus, which is counted until the student removes all their belongings and returns the room key. Any future housing will be cancelled and the student will not be responsible for any future housing charges. The housing deposit will be refunded according to the schedule below:

   a) If the withdrawal is for the fall term and the cancellation is received by August 1, 2016.
   b) If the withdrawal is for the spring term and the cancellation is received by December 31, 2016.

5. Cancelling to Commute from Home: A student may cancel his or her housing at any time to commute from their parent or guardian’s home. Any future housing will be cancelled and the student will not be responsible for any future housing charges.

6. Cancelling to commute from a location other than the Parent/Guardian’s home: A student may cancel their housing to live off campus but not at their parent or guardian’s home. As the housing contract is for the entire year, the following terms apply. In either case, the housing deposit is not refunded.

   a) If the cancellation is during the fall term, effectively cancelling for the fall and spring terms, the housing charges for the fall term will be prorated based on the number of nights the student resided on campus, which is counted until the student removes all their belongings and returns the room key. The student will also be responsible for 25% of the spring housing charges.

   b) If the cancellation is for the spring term only, the student will be responsible for the greater amount of either:
      i. 25% of the spring housing charges, or
      ii. a prorated amount of the spring housing charges based on the number of nights the student resided on campus, which is counted until the student removes all their belongings and returns the room key.

There will be no refund of the housing deposit or current term room charges if the student's housing is terminated by the University, including dismissal or suspension for academic or disciplinary purposes.

Refunds for room fees or housing deposits will be processed only when one officially withdraws from the University, removes personal belongings from one’s room, and returns one’s keys to Student Housing. Refunds will be prorated on a daily basis.

- Refunds are only granted when all indebtedness to the University has been satisfied and are distributed according to the policies and practices of the Business Office.

Age

- Students under the age of 16 are not eligible to live in on-campus housing. Students must be 16 years of age by April 1 of the year they sign the Housing and Dining Services contract in order to be eligible for on-campus housing. Legal guardians of students under the age of 18 are required to sign the Housing/Dining Services Contract which includes an On-Campus Living Acknowledgment. Only students under age 24 or less will be eligible to live in traditional residence hall accommodations. Students over age 24 may live in apartment style on-campus housing pending availability. Housing for students over age 24 is not guaranteed.

Room Assignments and Changes

- The University reserves all rights in regard to the assignment of rooms and the termination of occupancy. Those rights include the authority to terminate the room agreement of any student who violates University policy and residence hall rules specified in the Student Handbook, Living on Campus, and this document.
- The University reserves the right to change room assignments and fill vacancies to facilitate optimal use of the residential facilities. Students are obligated to accept a new roommate or move to a different room if notified by the University to do so. Students are required to comply with consolidation instructions as presented during the room consolidation process. The consolidation process may not be implemented every term.
- The University reserves the right to increase the capacity of any room by the assignment of an additional student.
- If during the term of occupancy this agreement is terminated by any/all roommate(s), the remaining student(s) shall accept other housing or a new roommate assigned by the Executive Director of Housing and Residence Life and/or designee.
- The University reserves the right to re-assign occupants, who, after contracting, have a vacancy in a double or triple room. This agreement is for room space and not a specific room.
- This agreement is for room space and the standard room furnishings such as bed, mattress, desk, desk chair, dresser, etc.
- A student may not permit other persons to occupy his or her room, other than the assigned roommate(s). Allowing another person to occupy his or her room will constitute a violation of this agreement, subjecting the student to disciplinary action up to and including removal from University housing and/or a fine.
- Room changes must be approved and authorized by the Executive Director of Housing and Residence Life and/or designee. Failure of the student(s) to obtain such authorization will constitute a violation of this agreement, subjecting the student to disciplinary action and/or a fine. This includes room changes in organizational housing.

Right of Entry

- The University reserves the right for authorized representatives to enter rooms for housekeeping purposes, repair or maintenance, health or safety reasons, to determine occupancy and vacancies, and to verify that the health, life, and safety rules and regulations of the University are in compliance. The University shall not be liable for any damages or loss of personal property of a student resulting from such entry.
- The University reserves the right to enter student rooms during break periods for damage assessment, maintenance, housekeeping, and safety reasons.
- All other entries will be limited to those approved by the Executive Director of Housing and Residence Life and/or designee when there is justifiable cause related to student safety or University operations.

Quiet Hours

- Conduct and noise interfering with study and sleep of residents is unacceptable.
- During quiet hours, a student should be able to study or sleep in his/her room without disturbance from his/her neighbors.
- Quiet hours for all University-owned residential facilities are Sunday through Thursday 10:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. and Friday and Saturday 12:00 midnight to 8:00 a.m. During exam weeks, quiet hours will be in effect on a 24-hour basis.
- Those individuals violating the Quiet Hours policy will be subject to disciplinary action and/or fines.

Responsibility for University Property

- The student will be held responsible for the condition and cleanliness of his or her room, its furnishings, and for any loss or damage other than normal wear that may occur during occupancy.
- Upon occupying a room all students residing in the room must review and sign a Room Condition Report (RCR) and are subject to being billed for damage not accounted for on this report.
- Room occupants will be assessed for any/all damages beyond what a reasonable person would determine to be a result of normal wear including, but not limited to, defaced plaster or woodwork, broken windows, lights, furniture, or the general deterioration of property due to misuse on the part of the occupants.
- Damage and loss will be determined through comparative inspections conducted by the Plant Operations Staff and/or Residence Life Staff prior to move-in and at the time when the student vacates his or her room.
All repairs to University property must be completed by University personnel. The student is not permitted to perform such repairs. Request for repairs or other maintenance work should be submitted via the online maintenance request process. In the event that repairs are made by a student, that student will be responsible for the appropriate damage charges.

Collectively, the students in each facility are responsible for the public areas within each facility. A charge for damage done in a given common area will be distributed among the students of that area when it cannot be determined which individuals are responsible for the damage. Damage fees assessed for common area damages are not able to be appealed by individual students.

Damage fees will be added to the student’s account via the student’s E-Bill and should be paid through the Business Office. Unpaid invoices for damages will result in “service holds” preventing registering, re-contracting, checking into a residence, etc.

Vacating Rooms

- Proper check-out procedures, highlighted at the end of each term, are to be followed when vacating one’s room. Anyone failing to follow proper procedure waives one’s individual right to appeal any/all damage charges. In addition, an improper check-out charge may be assessed.
- When a student vacates a room, all original furniture must be in the room and the room should be free of waste materials and all personal items.
- Residents will be billed if furniture needs to be assembled and/or replaced, if extra cleaning is necessary, or if personal items are removed by the University.
