Pointers for Making the Most of Your Day

Take advantage of the opportunities that have been created for you to meet with local legislators (Representative Burns and Senator Wozniak are both graduates of Pitt-Johnstown):

- Representative Frank Burns ’99 (11:30 a.m.-Noon) 323 – Main Capitol Bldg.
- Senator John Wozniak ’78 (Noon-12:30 p.m.) 10 – East Wing
- Representative Bryan Barbin (2-2:30 p.m.) 4 – East Wing

Senator John Rafferty, Jr. (from the 44th district) is also a graduate of Pitt-Johnstown. His office is located in the east wing (room 20).

If you are not able to meet with the representatives during one of these opportunities, you can still stop by their offices and speak with their staff members. And, be sure to leave one of your message cards with your contact information.

Develop your 30-second “elevator speech” to share with your legislators. Include your name, your major, your hometown, your plans after graduation, and your thoughts on what makes Pitt-Johnstown so special.

Both the House and the Senate will be in session, so take advantage of the opportunity to learn more about how state government operates. The Senate floor is located in the north wing of the main floor of the Capitol, and the House floor is located in the south wing of the Capitol.

The Capitol building is an impressive structure with fine architectural detailing, historical paintings, and elaborate frescos. Take advantage of one of the tours that will be offered (beginning at 12:30 and 1:30 p.m. in the main rotunda).

Lunch will be provided to you free of charge and will be served from 12-1:30 p.m. on the lower level, east wing (room 60-E).

A career chat will be held from 2-2:30 p.m. in 8E-B (east wing) to provide you with information on how to have a career in government. The event will consist of a panel discussion by Pitt alumni.

Be sure to gather in the rotunda at 2:30 p.m. for a dessert reception with Chancellor Gallagher and state legislators.

Don’t forget that we will gather at 3:30 in the lower concourse (east wing) for departure. There are no planned stops on the return trip to Johnstown.

In order to make a great first impression on legislators and others with whom you will be in contact, attire for the day should be professional.
